

What are readers saying about Ned's first book, Reluctant Hero ?

“Not only does my 8 year old love this book, I enjoyed it as well!! Being a child in today's world is difficult and having quirks can make it more challenging. Ned shows us a great lesson in embracing and finding our strengths no matter what they may be.” (Amazon)

“A funny, well written book about a boy finding his way into learning karate. My second grader enjoyed reading it by himself and could completely relate to the character Ned. My fourth grader said it was 'great!' Moms and kids will enjoy reading this book. We are looking forward to the next one!” (Amazon)

“Love, love, love this book. Ned is such a positive influence for children, which is desperately needed in the world today. Love the story and the karate message is just an added bonus. Gave it to my niece who is a school teacher. She loved it, as did her class. Can't wait for next episode.” (Goodreads)

“My daughter loves this book and her karate! So glad to be able to read this with her.” (Amazon)

“Great Book! I bought the book for each of my kids and one for my daughter's fourth grade teacher. Everyone is excitedly waiting for the next book!” (Amazon)

“I LOVED THIS BOOK! And I'm 44 years old. The adorable Ned is a well-crafted and loveable character, the writing witty and clever, and the karate theme refreshing and interesting. Bravo, and I can't wait for the next installment!” (Amazon)

“What a heartwarming journey Ned goes on! The authors had me and my daughter really hooked on what was going to happen. Love the writing, love the illustration, and I highly recommend it!” (Amazon)
